

Walk Reclaimed

Newsletter #2 – November 2016

I told some of you to expect this newsletter in a couple of weeks ... and that was three months ago. I apologize for the delay and thank you for your patience as we learn what needs to be done and when.

Overview ...

Walk Reclaimed is a nonprofit created to fight against human trafficking with a specific focus on providing housing and care for boys. People usually don't think of boys as the victims of sex trafficking, but it is all too common, and places to help these boys are virtually nonexistent.

Our mission is to provide shelter, love and support to male survivors of sex trafficking, to give hope to boys who have forgotten what hope feels like.

We received our 501(c)(3) tax exempt status from the IRS August 15, 2016 making any donations tax deductible.

We envision a ranch where boys have safety and space, physically and emotionally, a stable environment where they can do things that make them feel valuable.

Current focus ...

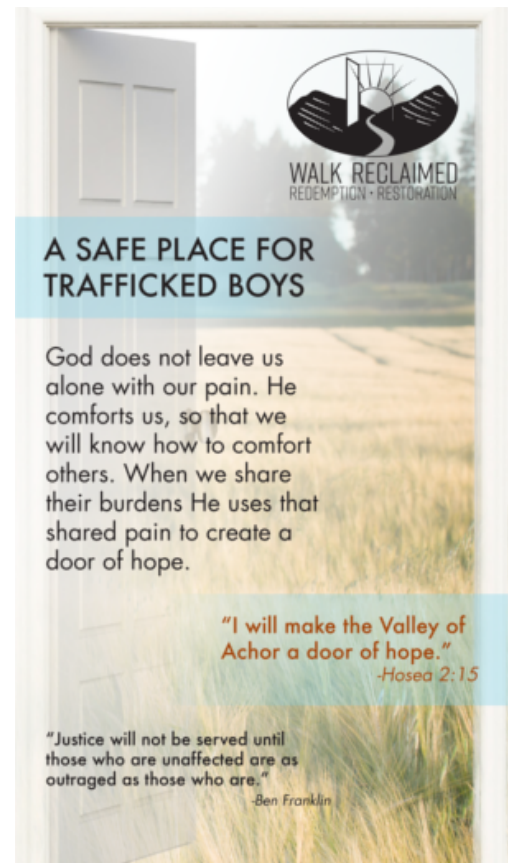

To make this happen we need to let people know about the problem and show them that something can be done. We are seeking opportunities to speak to churches and other groups to do just that. If you belong to or know of a group that would allow us to share our message, please let us know.

In preparation for speaking we have also created a brochure that gives a little bit of our story and tells how to get in touch with us. If you would like to have some brochures, email us and tell us how many you can use and where to send them.

For brochures or speaking opportunities, email me at jesse@WalkReclaimed.org.

How can you help?

Pray for us! It is common for us to pray asking God's blessing and help in whatever it is we are planning to do. We ask you not to pray that for us. Rather, pray that we find in him the faith, courage and resolve, as well as the resources to follow Him in what He is doing. If this work is ours, even if we accomplish all of our tasks, it will fail. If this work is truly His, it will succeed.

With that said, this will take money. We believe God will provide the money for what he calls us to do. God could make money miraculously appear, he has the power to do that, but generally He does His work through His people. We believe God is calling people already, and preparing them to provide the resources to establish and operate a boys ranch. He may be calling you, and if He is, we urge you be obedient to Him.

Blessed to be a blessing ...

Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." (Genesis 12:1-3)

You can't drive down the street without seeing a sticker that says, "God Bless America." We pray for God's blessing on this person or that organization, but what exactly are we asking? God called Abram (later called Abraham) and promised to bless him, but it is clear in this scripture that there was a reason for that blessing, an end goal. God would bless Abram so that Abram could be a blessing.

We are very short sighted, but God plays a long game. We have plans for the future, restoring boys, letting them know they are loved and giving them a chance at a meaningful life. God has plans for the generations and beyond. As His story unfolds, let us all play our part.
