

Walk Reclaimed

December 2016

As we look at the things going on in our world, the horrors in every state and in every city, we are 'a people walking in darkness', but there is hope. This time of year more than any other, our attention is drawn to that hope. As it was promised, the light came and shined two thousand years ago when Christ was born.

Because of that light we now have a choice. We can continue to walk in the darkness, oblivious to the evil that surrounds us, or we can walk in the light and do what we can to make a difference.

Walk Reclaimed was created to care for boys delivered from sex trafficking. People usually don't think of boys as the victims of sex trafficking, but it happens, and it matters. Trafficked boys live in a world of anger, distrust, shame and fear. At best, the road to recovery is long and hard, but it is made nearly impossible because there is no place for these boys. Even if they want to get out of the life they have found themselves in, there is no place for them to go.

Our mission is to create a ranch where male survivors of sex trafficking can find shelter, love and support. This will be a place where boys aren't just removed from their old life and kept safe, but a place where they can experience a different life, a ranch where boys have safety and space, physically and emotionally, a stable environment where they can do things that make them feel valuable.

Fulfilling that mission is going to take money to secure and develop the land. We are not begging or pleading, we are offering you an opportunity to be part of this work. We believe God is going to provide what we need, and we also believe He is calling some of you to help financially. If God is moving you to give, we simply ask you to be obedient to Him. If He isn't calling you to help financially, we ask you to pray for us and for the boys we will serve.
